

Contents

Foreword	3
Acknowledgements	4
Synopsis of contents	5
Introduction to The Family Assessment	6
The Family Assessment model of family functioning	9
The Family Assessment as an aid to assessment	11
What makes up an assessment using The Family Assessment ?	11
Who would find The Family Assessment useful in their work	12
Training and supervision	17
The Family Assessment model of family functioning explained	19
Principles of The Family Assessment and the Assessment Framework	19
Family tasks and characteristics	19
The family as a system	20
The dimensions of family organisation and family character	20
Uniqueness	21
Diversity and the social context.	21
Disadvantage	23
Discrimination.	23
Joint working	24
Assessing family strengths and family difficulties	24
The training DVD	26
Mapping the current identified problems, concerns and difficulties	27
Understanding the dimensions of family organisation and family character	29
Family organisation dimension.	29
Family adaptability	30
Parenting	35
Family character dimension	39
Family communication	40
The emotional life of the family	43
Family alliances	47
Family identity	51
The context of family history	55
The Family Assessment recording form as an aid to assessment.	59
The principles of The Family Assessment recording form.	59
Using the recording form	60
The family profile	63
Feeding back your assessment to the family	65

Training in the use of The Family Assessment	66
How The Family Assessment links in with the Assessment Framework	67
Introduction	67
Gathering information about the Assessment Framework Domains and Dimensions .	69
Skills and methods for working with families during assessment	71
Introduction	71
Using the range of The Family Assessment methods	72
The skills you need	73
The assessment process	74
Seeing families together	74
Preparing for the family meeting	78
Conducting the family meeting	80
Using methods for promoting family interaction: interview schedules	83
Asking questions	84
Family tasks	97
Talking about family history	113

Methods for promoting family interaction
121

Recording form	143
-----------------------	------------

Research background and applicability of The Family Assessment	167
--	------------
