

Contents

Quick guide to finding your way around	ii
Preface	iii
What the Hope for Children and Families programme is and sets out to do	iii
The contents of each intervention guide for practitioners	iii
Guiding principles	iv
Components	v
Using the resources	vi
Acknowledgement	vi
B Working with children: Engagement, establishing a profile for intervention, goal setting and measuring progress [ES-B1]	I
Introduction	I
Stage 1: Consider the referral and the aims of the assessment	2
Stage 2: Gather assessment information on the child's developmental needs, parenting capacity, and family and environmental factors	2
Stage 3: Organise the information using the Assessment Framework and a chronology	3
Stage 4: Analyse the patterns of strengths and difficulties	4
Stage 5: Make judgements based on a systemic analysis	5
Stage 6: Make decisions and develop a plan of intervention	8
Stage 7: Implement the plan of intervention, monitor and review progress	11
The modules	12
B Working with children: Engaging children, parents and families: Promoting hopefulness and establishing goals [ES-B2]	13
The purpose of the modules on engaging children, parents and families	13
Forming an alliance with the referrer to establish the purpose of the further work	14
Establishing hopefulness through an initial relationship with all members of the family and acknowledging the nature of the tasks	15
The role of children and young people in the meetings	15
Goal setting	15
Some information for the child and family in working with the practitioner	16

M Enhancing children’s competence: Engaging children, parents and families: Promoting hopefulness [ES-M1]
Content	18
Materials	18
Main steps	18
Reason for the child and family being referred to the practitioner	18
Establishing a team around the child	18
Discussion with parents and child about child protection concerns and expectations (where appropriate)	19
Discussion of the practitioner’s understanding about when children are harmed	19
General statement about what can go wrong in families	20
Addressing specific types of maltreatment	20
Discussion of the benefits of working with the practitioner	21
Special cases: When families are not together	22
M Enhancing children’s competence: Goal setting [ES-M2]	23
Content	23
Materials	23
Main steps	23
Discuss the children’s, parents’ and professionals’ views about goals	24
Discuss potential collaborative goals	24
The child and family agreement	25
Family safety plan	26
Making an agreement	27
Special cases: A solution-focused approach to establishing goals	28
Materials to copy, print or download	29
Guidance for practitioners in discussing various forms of child maltreatment with families [ES-1]	30
Discussing the benefits of working with the practitioner [ES-2]	33
Providing an overview of areas to be addressed by the practitioner [ES-3]	34
Management plan: Practitioners and parents* [ES-4]	36
Developing a family safety plan: Example outline* [ES-5]	37
Library of modules [ES-6]	39
Summary of intervention guides for practitioners [ES-7]	43
Child and family goals rating form [ES-8]	52